PROJECT/ACCOUNT MANAGER

SERVICEPLAN

Our Amsterdam agency is growing like cabbage - serious Dutch expression - and that's why we are looking for people to join the team.

What should sound familiar:

- 2-4 years of advertising agency experience.
- Strong organizational skills.
- Problem solver.
- Eager to learn.
- Experienced in working with multinationals.
- A devil for details.
- True positive spirit.
- Genuinely interested in (digital) advertising.
- Proactive; your eyes and ears open to new opportunities.
- Dutch native, but strong in English.

What you'll be doing:

- Acting as go-to person for major clients.
- Planning development of online and offline advertising materials.
- Adding your skillset to a well-oiled Amsterdam team.
- Teaming up with creatives, designers and developers.
- Always keeping your eyes on the budget.

What's in it for you:

- Competitive salary.
- International working environment.
- Perform a vital role in our Amsterdam agency.
- The freedom to write your own success story.
- All the gadgetry you need to write it in a proper fashion.

Our story:

Serviceplan Group is the largest and most diverse group of communication agencies in Europe; run by entrepreneurs and their partners. Since its creation as a simple advertising agency in 1970, Serviceplan has evolved into an integrated agency that masters all communication disciplines. Whether it's brand strategists, creative experts, media or Internet experts, web designers, relational marketers or CRM specialists, market researchers, public relations consultants or business experts at Serviceplan, everyone works in the interest of 'The House of Communication', the only fully integrated agency model in the Benelux.

Why we get up in the morning:

L'Oréal Group, Fiat Group, Shell, Coca-Cola, ICI PARIS XL, Fedex, Sodexo, Lactalis, Weight Watchers, Amnesty International, Veiligheid.nl, VLAM, STIMA are among our clients.
